

I request that the legislature not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's telephone privacy protection.